The employee's signature on this notice merely constitutes acknowledgement of receipt. In accordance with an employer's general recordkeeping requirements under the law, it is the employer's obligation to ensure that the employment and wage-related information provided on this notice is accurate and complete. Furthermore, the employee's signature acknowledging receipt of this notice does not constitute a voluntary written agreement as required under the law between the employer and employee in order to credit any meals or lodging against the minimum wage. Any such voluntary written agreement must be evidenced by a separate document.
